I learnt about the remains of Bharhut Stupa, the inscriptions, engravings, images & the message conveyed by them. I learnt about the coins issued in the sub-continent since ancient times

How will this experience enrich you as a person?

Since I want to opt for a career in history, I believe that detailed observation & study of the sculptural panels of the Stupa will give an insight into the ancient faith of Buddhism. Study of coins gives an insight into the economic & political conditions of different eras.
